

Dexter Acquires Premiere Envelopes

Combined products and services will allow us to provide you with a more complete resource.

November 8, 2012 — We are so excited to announce our acquisition of Premiere Envelopes, a division of the Ashland, Virginia based company Premiere Color, LLC. The acquisition will both enrich and broaden the range of products and services currently offered to the over 100,000 churches served by Premiere and Dexter.

Premiere Envelopes provides affordable customized offering envelopes and personalized services to the church market and to retailers who serve that market. Products and services include offering envelope boxed sets with varying levels of customization features, mailing programs and electronic giving services.

“We want to provide our church and denominational clients with a robust offering of affordable worship products and church supplies that empower them in growing their ministries,” stated Dexter CEO, Mark Zimmerman. “Premiere’s primary product adds a distinctive twist to our existing Religious Division product line. This strategic addition is another exciting step forward in our mission to put the needs of our clients at the center of what we do.”

“Premiere Envelopes is a phenomenal service to churches, and offers an affordable way to incorporate their distinct message into their fund collection efforts,” commented Sam Stover, Vice President of Dexter’s Religious Division. “With this addition, we will be able to offer the thousands of churches served by Premiere and Dexter a full-range of solutions that serve to engage members and maximize the worship experience.”

To view a few of our the Premiere products offered through Dexter Press, click here. To view the full line of products and services offered by Premiere Envelopes, visit <http://www.premiere-envelope.com/>.